

Education Inclusion Family Advisor Newsletter June 2025

A Bit From Me

Hello everyone, welcome to our June newsletter from the EIFA team. I am pleased to announce I will be holding an online drop in for your school in the next few weeks, in preparation for the school holidays. So, if you would like some information about how to keep the kids entertained, or some tips on how to stay calm over the longer holidays, please do sign up for an informal chat with me! Keep an eye out for more information and the booking links over the next week.

Parenting Top Tip Restorative Conversations

After your child has calmed down after a meltdown, a restorative conversation can help to mend relationships. They give your children a chance to listen, reflect, empathise and make things right. It is also a learning opportunity for everyone to plan how to deal with things differently in the future.

Step 1 – What happened? Let your children tell the story.

Step 2 – What were you thinking about at the time?

Step 3 – What have your thoughts been since?

Step 4 – Who has been affected by your actions? In what way?

Step 5 – What do you need to do now to make things right?

Treasure Hunt!

The sun is shining, and it is time for a treasure hunt! Kids love treasure hunts especially if there is a treat at the end. You could make your treasure chest a matchbox or go looking for things to spot all around you.. a post box, a road sign.. Not only is this free and super fun but it gives your children a chance to see writing all round them, practice reading and there will be loads of lovely chat!
