

Vocabulary

accessories	extra things a character wears, like hats, glasses or jewellery
character	a person, animal or creature in a story or play
costume	the clothes an actor wears to look like their character
setting	the place where the story happens
props	objects that actors use in a play

Costumes

- Costumes help us to understand a character.
- Actors wear costumes so that we can quickly identify their character.
- Different costumes need different colours.
Most villains wear dark costumes.

Bringing Books to Life

Production

A production is a live performance of a show to an audience.

Props

- Props are objects that the characters use to help tell the story.
- Each character may need a different prop to help us understand the story.

